

Plymouth Marine Science and Education Foundation

APPLICATION FOR GRANT-IN-AID

Trustees of the Plymouth Marine Science & Education Foundation are pleased to announce that a limited number of Grants-in-Aid of up to £400 will be available in 2019 to people who meet the criteria for attendance at conferences,
symposia, workshops or advanced training courses

- ❖ Applicants must be registered PhD students or postgraduate scientists within 4 years of graduation employed in marine-related research projects at one of the following institutions:

DDRC Healthcare
Marine Biological Association of the United Kingdom
National Marine Aquarium
Plymouth Marine Laboratory
Plymouth University Marine Institute

- ❖ The event for which the grant is requested must take place after 5 February 2019
- ❖ Applications must be supported in writing by the applicant's supervisor
- ❖ Successful applicants must produce short reports within two weeks of the events and be prepared to give an oral presentation at the annual student conference

Closing date for applications is 25 January 2019